By Catherine Mather © 2011

Skin Tone: Red

All over wash all bisque.

Wipe the paint from under nail beds of limbs and the eye ball area of the head. Apply white to eye balls Remove the over wash paint from mirror and handle. Fire The mirror can be finished in a number of ways, glaze, and then re fire with gold or silver, china paint or as I have done to achieve a metal look I applied a silver gilding foil when the dolls firing was completed. Then detail with soft pink and green iridescent nail polish picking out flowers and leaves on the mirror back, before over washing with a water wash of black paint to antique the silver. To complete, inset a circle of silver mirror cardboard in to the opening

Detail limbs by blushing backs of hands, knuckles and body and limb creases. A fine line of white gloss paint (manicure white) at each nail tip; Fire
